Day 1: Singapore – Kuching – Hotel – Santubong Wildlife Cruise

Upon arrival, you will be greeted by your friendly tour representative before being transferred to your hotel for check-in. Later in the afternoon, embark on the exciting Santubong Wildlife Cruise which takes you along the rivers of the Santubong Peninsula, offering you a chance to see some of Sarawak's fascinating wildlife such as the rare Irrawaddy dolphins. This will be followed by a sail along the mangrove river banks in search of the big-nosed Proboscis monkeys, which are often seen on the treetops at the water's edge, where they settle down for the night. As dusk falls, you will witness the fascinating sights of fireflies moving amongst the branches of the mangroves. You might even catch a glimpse of the crocodiles, which can be easily spotted using powerful torches which reflect their eye shine.

(*Note: Wildlife sightings cannot be guaranteed, however the local land operator does enjoy a high success rate. The tour also does not operate on wet weather occasions.

Note: For late arrivals, the Santubong Wildlife Cruise will be conducted on Day 3 instead.)

Day 2: Semenggoh Wildlife Centre – Annah Rais Longhouse (Breakfast/Lunch)

After breakfast, you will depart to Semenggoh Wildlife Centre for a rare encounter with semi-wild orang utans who have been rescued from captivity and rehabilitated to survive and live off the surrounding forest reserve. After that, take a scenic drive through the lush green countryside dotted with paddy fields, pepper gardens, rubber plantations and jungle-clad mountains before arriving at the Bidayuh Longhouse Annah Rais. Although the 200 year-old structure has relatively modern basic amenities to serve its guests comfortably, it ensures that its unique architecture and charm remains untouched. In addition, the Bidayuh or Land Dayaks are well-known for their warm hospitality and also reputed to be the best makers of tuak or rice wine. Have lunch at a local restaurant before your transfer back to the hotel.
